Sexton News:

Purchased new signs to let the public know that a funeral is in progress. These signs will take care of the safety issues with the DPW and Sexton when working on funerals. The DPW is currently raking up pine cones in the cemeteries.

Discussion held.

New Business:

- The wood posts in the cemeteries are starting to rot. Discussion held.

- April 15th the Spring clean-up starts. Discussion held.

- Chairperson Dedoe presented a list of sexton duties. Discussion held.

Old Business:

- Discussion and input from Clerical Secretary Jowett about the gravesites she found in Kinney Cemetery that the township could sell. Member Travis and Member Bates will be given the names so they can investigate the gravesites to see if there is a possibility that a person is buried in any of those graves. Then a recommendation can be made to the township board on selling those gravesites that are available. Discussion held.
- The Cemetery Advisory Board would like to thank Clerk Turner for her years of service.
- Motion by Member Travis, supported by Chairperson Dedoe to adjourn the meeting. Vote 5-0. Motion carried.

Meeting adjourned at 9:37 a.m.

Kathleen Turner, Clerk
